Conflict and Health

By Natasha M. Howard, Egbert Sondorp, Anne Marie Ter Veen

Open University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Conflict and Health, Natasha M. Howard, Egbert Sondorp, Anne Marie Ter Veen, "A much needed, eminently readable, concise and practical textbook .New issues on humanitarian reform, non-communicable diseases, equity, corruption, and the role of military and private security firms are only some of the topics that have not been included in previous text books on this subject. I highly recommend this book for students and practitioners who wish to learn about the subject or simply update themselves on the latest developments in the field of conflict and public health." Paul Spiegel, Deputy Director of the Division of Programme Support and Management at the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), Switzerland "These are the most difficult environments to program in; physically, emotionally, politically and morally. Providing public health support and assistance here demands courage, rigor, a commitment to professionalism and an obsession with evidence. This book provides just such a foundation, equipping the student and practitioner to better understand the nature of conflict, the theory and practice of humanitarian assistance and the possibilities for recovery after conflict. It is destined to become an obligatory text for all humanitarian professionals." Dr. Peter...
