The towing of cane on this stream demands that the channel be kept open, not only over the section previously improved but farther upstream, but within the limits of the project, and in order to do this the estimate is considered necessary. Commercial statistics.--A comparative statement of shipments and receipts for the past three years is as follows: Comparative statement. The tonnage for the calendar year 1915 consisted principally of sugar cane, fuel oil, wood, and miscellaneous merchandise. Sugar cane and fuel oil, which comprise about 85 per cent of the total tonnage, required vessels of a draft of 4 feet 6 inches; miscellaneous products were carried in boats of a draft of 3 feet 6 inches to...
