The Beauties of the Bosphorus (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Miss Pardoe

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Beauties of the Bosphorus Never, since the close of the seventeenth century, when the troops of Soliman, on their way to besiege Vienna, were overcome by the prowess of the gallant and ill-requited Sobiesky, have the eyes of all civilized Europe been turned with such absorbing interest towards the Bosphorus and the Danube as at the present moment; a consideration which has induced the Publisher of the two volumes, of which a reprint is here offered to the public, to form of what were originally two distinct works, written by different hands, and produced at different periods, one continuous tableau of the theatre of impending war. From the foundation of the Russian empire, the possession of Constantinople has ever been the steady and unwearied ambition of its rulers; an ambition which has descended like an heirloom from generation to generation, earnest, unabated, and unchanged. It was in the heart of Peter the Great, when he dictated that famous clause in his will which enjoined upon his successors the duty of persistence in this one...
