Anchor Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 201 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. One of PEOPLE magazine s Great Beach Reads: This novel about a striving, upscale California family is a bracing entertainment that zeroes in on the modern pressures put onteens--and their folks. The Hawthorne family has it all. Great jobs, a beautiful house in one of the most affluent areas of northern California, and three charming kids with perfectly straight teeth. And then comes their eldest daughter s senior year of high school . . . Firstborn Angela Hawthorne is a straight-A student and star athlete, with extracurricular activities coming out of her ears and a college application that s not going to write itself. She s set her sights on Harvard, her father s alma mater, and like a dog with a chew toy, Angela won t let up until she s basking in crimson-colored glory. Except her class rank as valedictorian is under attack, she s suddenly losing her edge at cross-country, and she can t help but daydream about the cute baseball player in English class. Of course Angela knows the time put into her schoolgirl crush would be better spent coming up with a subject for her term paper which, along with her college essay and community service hours has a rapidly approaching deadline. Angela s mother, Nora, is similarly stretched to the limit, juggling parent-teacher meetings, carpool, and a real-estate career where she caters to the mega rich and super-picky buyers and sellers of the Bay Area. The youngest daughter, Maya, still can t read at the age of eight; the middle-child, Cecily, is no longer the happy-go-lucky kid she once was; and the dad, Gabe, seems oblivious to the mounting pressures at home because a...
