They thought that they liked better than anything in all their pleasant lives the time when they sat down to tea, sometimes by the open window, sometimes by the cheerful fire; and then, when the table was cleared, and their mama brought out her work, and told them stories, or taught Rose to hem and Harry to draw, how happy they were! The only thing that seemed sad to them was when bed-time came; but still, the moment their mama said, It is time to go to bed, they put everything away, and followed her up stairs; for whatever she wished them to do they did instantly. They loved her so much, that to please and obey her was their delight. It was early in the month of February, when, one day, they were agreeably surprised by receiving a present from the farmer s wife of a cock and five hens. There was a yard, with an empty hen-house at the back of their cottage, and their mama...
