Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Secret Statutes of the United States: A Memorandum It is well known that when acting upon Executive business, that is, upon treaties and on nominations to office, the Senate of the United States usually meets with closed doors, although open Executive sessions, as they are called, may be held. In this respect the provisions of the Standing Rules of the Senate are as follows: 2. When acting upon confidential or Executive business, unless the same shall be considered in open Executive session, the Senate Chamber shall be cleared of all persons except the Secretary, the Chief Clerk, the Principal Legislative Clerk, the Executive Clerk, the Minute and Journal Clerk, the Sergeant-at-Arms, the Assistant Doorkeeper, and such other officers as the Presiding Officer shall think necessary; and all such officers shall be sworn to secrecy. 3. All confidential communications made by the President of the United States to the Senate shall be by the Senators and the officers of the Senate kept secret; and all treaties which may be laid before the Senate, and all remarks,...
