AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 272 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in.This book, Before I forget is about one womans journey from a developing country into the big, wide world. She has made a conscious effort to systematically log her journey from the beginning and has written her account using documents of her travel experience and learning throughout life. Taking every opportunity both in her profession and in her leisure activities, it is apparent that she has made full use of these. This book demonstrates the authors joy in sharing experiences. It brings home the value of education, life-long learning and sustained motivation despite difficulties. The author strengthens the fact that family ties and roots are invaluable to ones existence. The book gives the reader a sense of openness, courage,...
