Not illustrated. 1891 Excerpt: . . . being therein very potent, and that this was about the 5th May following, I judged that she would about that time have certain news of her husband, if he did not then come home. The second week in May she did hear from him, but he did not come home till July. He had been several voyages in the west, was taken prisoner by the kings forces, and, at the time of the question, was in Barnstaple. Fig. 26. Question. --Whether Presrytery Shall Stand Judgment. --The angles of the figure are not fixed, but the cusp of the 9th, from which this judgment is to be deduced, is 0, a fixed and stable sign; and we must also judge from therein in the terms of , who is the general significator of religious matters. is now stationary, and is leaving his exaltation, and is impedited by J; after leaving s, he enters the fixed sign SI, and is in the terms of fj. We find, who rules the 9th, in her detriment, and in the 12th house from her own, the 9th. She has twenty-one degrees to pass through in the 8th house before she get into her own sign Q, and where she would be fixed. But before she reaches 0, she meets the of 1, (shewing that the gentry of England will oppose it), and then of J, (lord of the ascendant of England, f), hence the whole commonalty of the kingdom will disapprove...
