This year, in 2004, we have dedicated a total of NDERSON 6. 4 million to address normal annual facilities operations, as well as facilities safety and environmental deficiency concerns. Prior to that, the budget was 1. 4 million. Within the first several weeks, we had identified another 2 million, and since then we have raised that to a total of 6. 4 million. I think it shows that we have reacted swiftly to take care of the things that we could do imme-diately. ut Abo 84 percent of this funding has already been distributed to the detention centers for completion of identified repairs and nor-mal annual operating expenses. In addition, about 45 percent of these immediate repairs have been completed since we started this. The Office of Facilities Management and...
